DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Claims 1-10 are currently pending.

This application is a 371 of PCT/JP03/07838.

The preliminary amendment filed on 12/6/2004 amending claim 8 is acknowledged.

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions, which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group, I claim(s) 1, drawn to an isolated polypeptide of alpha L-fucosidase.

Group, II claim(s) 3, drawn to an isolated polypeptide of sulfated fucan sulfatase.

Group, III claim(s) 2, drawn to a method for producing the endo type alpha L-fucosidase.

Group, IV claim(s) 4, drawn to a method for producing the sulfated fucan sulfatase.

Group, V claim(s) 5-6, 8 and 9, drawn to a method for producing a sulfated fucan oligosaccharide.

Group, VI claim(s) 7 and 10, drawn to a sulfated fucan oligosaccharide.

2. The inventions listed as Groups I - VI do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The polypeptide fucosidase or sulfated fucan sulfatase of Group I and II, and fucan oligosaccharide of Group VI are each unrelated and chemically distinct entities. The only shared technical feature of these groups is that they all relate to polynucleotide encoding a polypeptide fucosidase or sulfated fucan sulfatase or sulfated fucan sulfate degrading enzyme. However, this shared technical feature is not a "special technical feature" as defined by PCT Rule 13.2 as it does not define a contribution over the art. Sakai et al. (WO 01/081560, publication 11/1/2001, see IDS) teach a DNA encoding an enzyme endo-alpha-L-fucosidase or a polypeptide endo-alpha-L-fucosidase, which decompose a fucan sulfate produce oligosaccharide. Thus, a DNA encoding an endo-alpha-L-fucosidase protein or an endo-alpha-L-fucosidase does not make contribution over the prior art.

3. The polypeptides of Group I and II do not share any "special technical feature" with the methods of Group III and IV as the polypeptides of Group I and II are neither made nor used by the methods of Group III and IV.

4. The oligosaccharide of Group VI does not share any "special technical feature" with the method of Group IV as the oligosaccharide of Group VI is neither made nor used by the method of Group IV.

5. The methods of Groups III-V do not have unity of invention with each other as each methods comprises unrelated steps, as use different products and produce different effects.

37 CFR 1.475 does not provide for multiple products and/or methods within a single application. Therefore, inventions of Group I - VI lack unity of invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Art Unit: 1652

The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and a product claim is subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be rejoined in accordance with the provisions of MPEP § 821.04. Process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the patentable product will be entered as a matter of right if the amendment is presented prior to final rejection or allowance, whichever is earlier. Amendments submitted after final rejection are governed by 37 CFR 1.116; amendments submitted after allowance are governed by 37 CFR 1.312.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103, and 112. Until an elected product claim is found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowed product claim will not be rejoined. See "Guidance on Treatment of Product and Process Claims in light of In re Ochiai, In re Brouwer and 35 U.S.C. § 103(b)," 1184 O.G. 86 (March 26, 1996). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, Applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution either to maintain dependency on the product claims or to otherwise include the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder.
